Summary of reasons for decision:

The image file is a digital photograph that has been taken of an image on a device. The image depicts a painting of a nude boy. It lacks any overtly and unambiguously sexual elements. The purpose of the image is uncertain. Without any definitive sexual elements, the publication is unlikely to even tend to promote or support the exploitation of children or young persons for sexual purposes. It must therefore be classified as unrestricted. The unrestricted classification of the image is consistent with the right to freedom of expression provided by the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990.
